Anti-Bribery Policy

INTRODUCTION

Bribery is, in the conduct of the College's business, the offering or accepting of any gift, loan, payment, reward or advantage for personal gain as an encouragement to do something which is dishonest, illegal or a breach of trust.

Bribery is a criminal offence and the College prohibits any form of bribery. We require compliance, from everyone connected with our business, with the highest ethical standards and anti-bribery laws applicable. Integrity and transparency are of utmost importance to us and we have a zero-tolerance attitude towards corrupt activities of any kind, whether committed by fellows, employees or by third parties acting for or on behalf of St Hugh's College.

OFFENCES

It is a criminal offence to:

- offer a bribe;
- accept a bribe;
- bribe a foreign official;
- fail to prevent a bribe.

You should be aware that if you are found guilty by a court of committing bribery, you could face up to 10 years in prison and/or an unlimited fine. The College could also face prosecution and be liable to pay a fine.

PURPOSE

The purpose of this Policy is to convey to all fellows, employees and interested parties of St Hugh's College the rules of the College in relation to our unequivocal stance towards the eradication of bribery and our commitment to ensuring that St Hugh's College conducts its business in a fair, professional and legal manner.

SCOPE

This Policy applies to all fellows and employees of St Hugh's College, regardless of seniority or location. It also extends to anyone working for or on our behalf e.g., those engaged by us on a self-employed basis or an agency arrangement.

We will encourage the application of this Policy where our business involves the use of third parties e.g., suppliers; contractors.

POLICY

It is prohibited, directly or indirectly, to offer, give, request or accept any bribe i.e., gift, loan, payment, reward or advantage, either in cash or any other form of inducement, to or from any person or company in order to gain commercial, contractual or regulatory advantage for the College, or in order to gain any personal advantage for an individual or anyone connected with the individual in a way that is unethical.

It is also prohibited to act in the above manner in order to influence an individual in his capacity as a foreign public official. You should not make a payment to a third party on behalf of a foreign public official.

If you are offered a bribe, or a bribe is solicited from you, you should not agree to it unless your immediate safety is in jeopardy. You should immediately contact the Bursary so that action can be taken if considered necessary. You may be asked to give a written account of events.

If you, as a fellow, employee or person working on our behalf, suspect that an act of bribery, or attempted bribery, has taken place, even if you are not personally involved, you are expected to report this to the Principal or to the Bursary. You may be asked to give a written account of events.

Appropriate checks will be made before engaging with suppliers or other third parties of any kind to reduce the risk of our business partners breaching our anti-bribery rules.

The College will ensure that all of its transactions, including any sponsorship or donations given to charity, are made transparently and legitimately.

St Hugh's College takes any actual or suspected breach of this Policy extremely seriously and will carry out a thorough investigation should any instances arise.

We will uphold laws relating to bribery and will take disciplinary action against any individual, or other relevant action against persons working on our behalf or in connection with us, should we find that an act of bribery, or attempted bribery, has taken place. This action may result in your dismissal if you are an employee, or the cessation of our arrangement with you if you are self-employed, an agency worker, contractor etc.

Fellows and employees are reminded of the College's Whistleblowing Policy which is detailed in this manual and on the College's website.

GIFTS AND HOSPITALITY

We realise that the giving and receiving of gifts and hospitality where nothing is expected in return helps form positive relationships with third parties where it is proportionate and properly recorded. This does not constitute bribery and consequently such actions are not considered a breach of this Policy.

Gifts include money; goods (flowers, vouchers, food, drink, event tickets when not used in a hosted business context); services or loans given or received as a mark of friendship or appreciation.

Hospitality includes entertaining; meals or event tickets (when used in a hosted business context) given or received to initiate or develop relations. Hospitality will become a gift if the host is not present.

No gift should be given nor hospitality offered by a fellow, employee or anyone working on our behalf to any party in connection with our business without receiving prior written approval from the Bursary. Similarly, no gift or offer of hospitality should be accepted by a fellow, employee or anyone working on our behalf without receiving prior written approval from the Bursary.

A record will be made of every instance in which gifts or hospitality are given or received.

As the law is constantly changing, this Policy is subject to review and the College reserves the right to amend this Policy without prior notice.
